

ABNORMAL

I remember when I was a patient in a mental hospital; I finally was certified as cured. When I was saying good-bye to the chief psychologist, he asked, "What are you planning to do when you go out into the world?" "Well," I answered, "I have passed the bar examination, so perhaps I'll practice law. Or perhaps I'll try acting. I was pretty good in dramatics when I was in college." He paused a moment. Deep in thought, "On the other hand, I may just be a tea kettle."

ABNORMAL - HALF THERE

I went to the Psychic Wam-Wam to have my mind read, and after the reading I was only charged half price."

ABNORMAL - MATTER OF EXCESS

Dr. Fraud: Well Mr. Prank, what brings you to see a psychologist?

Mr. Prank: I like pancakes.

Dr. Fraud: Pancakes. There is nothing wrong with that. I like them also.

Mr. Prank: Well then, you should come home with me, I have 20 trunks full of them.

ADDICTION - ALCOHOLISM (symbols)

Secretary: (enters) Your classes from Moo U., Cow College, and Holstein Harvard are here for their lecture on the Agid, Eago, and Super-Eago and alcoholism.

Dr. Fraud: 'Send them in.' "Class do you know the entire life of a child through adulthood is determined by good old fashion beer. The first response of any earthly organism is a scream. We have established, at the .0001 level of significance, the fact that this is for sure a cry for beer, or at least, a strong loud plea for some form of alcoholic beverage. If the child does not drink beer, it is because his system is not yet adapted to drinking beer, but behind the crave for milk is the instinctual drive for beer. This is the one and only primary instinct. Its secondary instincts are to be found in the love of popping corks, of golden-brown colors, of frothy substances like soap. The child instinctively calls his father, "POP", which sounds like the popping of a top off of a beer bottle, and his mother "MAMA", which is the sound of beer being poured from the bottle into a glass. If you do not believe this, it probably means you have not been listening. Listen next time. It is quite apparent that the child does not learn love and kindness at his mother's knee, and vice-versa at other beer joints. All the gurgling noises of childhood go to prove the strength of this "gurgling beer drive." Most of our knowledge is based on dreams, forgetting, Freudian slips, etc. which, is quite obvious, the most reliable evidence possible for beer transference and sublimating. It is proved by means too lengthy to report here (or anywhere in this solar system) that even infant's dream, day and night, of beer. They can dream of nothing else, but, of course, they may repress this. When child dreams of a ship on the ocean, what is it but a symbol of beer drinking? A rain, a creek or lake, everything yellow or brown is beer. Everything in something else is beer. A nut in a shell; for example, is obviously beer in a bottle. Everything issuing from an aperture is beer. Everything that moves is beer, particularly quick-moving jerky things which are reminiscent of a barley hop turning to beer. In fact, we may say a child cannot dream of anything but beer, for cool and refreshing tasty beer fills the mind of everybody. Now you know; you may have thought sex, money, power, or you name it is numero uno, No, beer.

 - To commemorate her 69th birthday, Julie Andrews made an appearance at Radio City Music Hall for the benefit of the AARP. One of the musical numbers she performed was "My Favorite Things" from the movie "The Sound Of Music." The lyrics of the song were changed for the "blue hair" audience. Here are the lyrics:

Maalox and nose drops and needles for knitting,
 Walkers and handrails and new dental fittings,
 Bundles of magazines tied up in string,
 These are a few of my favorite things.
 Cadillacs and cataracts and hearing aids and glasses,
 Polident and Fixodent and false teeth in glasses,
 Pacemakers, golf carts and porches with swings,
 These are a few of my favorite things.
 When the pipes leak,
 When the bones creak,
 When the knees go bad,
 I simply remember my favorite things,
 And then I don't feel so bad.
 Hot tea and crumpets, and corn pads for bunions,
 No spicy hot food or food cooked with onions,
 Bathrobes and heat pads and hot meals they bring,
 These are a few of my favorite things.
 Back pains, confused brains, and no fear of sinnin,'
 Thin bones and fractures and hair that is thinnin,'
 And we won't mention our short shrunken frames,
 When we remember our favorite things.
 When the joints ache,
 When the hips break,
 When the eyes grow dim,
 Then I remember the great life I've had,
 And then I don't feel so bad.

ALCOHOLISM

Nobody minds a man having a morning eye-opener, and it is perfectly OK to have a few bracers between classes, Also a few before coming back to school and a few beers in the hot afternoon will keep a man healthy. Of course it is perfectly okay to drink at an afternoon cocktail hour and a drink before and after cocktails is great. A man can not be criticized for having wine with his dinner, and a highball or two before and after, and a few drinks in the evening and a night cap _____ but this business of sip, sip, sip, sip all day long has to stop.

ALCOHOLISM (A REASON TO DRINK)

Mr. Sullivan: Take last night for example; I had just attended AA and was on my way home, and I had just walked past a bar, and it made me feel so good, I felt like a new man to be able to walk right by a bar. So I went back and bought the new man a drink.

Dr. Fraud: Sounds like you can avoid everything but temptation.

Mr. Sullivan: But the bartenders love me.

Dr. Fraud: But they get paid to love you.

Mr. Sullivan: Beside Doc. the world looks so rosy though my blood shot eyes.

ALCOHOLISM (ESCAPE VIA COLOR)

The world looks so rosy through my blood shot eyes.

AMBITION:

Ambition is a poor excuse for not having enough good sense to be lazy.

AMNESIA

I remember I had amnesia one time, may be two times, or a thousand or more times that I forgot.

ANARCHY

-Anarchy is better than no government at all.

-Why are we a voting democracy, if behavior is lawful?

ANIMAL RIGHTS

Animal rights activists were able to get laws passed restricting experiments using rats for 3 reasons:

1. There are more (lawyers) than rats
2. Lab assistants don't get attached to (lawyers.)
3. There are some things that rats won't do. (Could be any other Occupation)

ANTHROPOMORPHIZE

"Don't anthropomorphize computers. They don't like it."

ANXIOUS

Patient to a psychologist, "I keep having these two dreams. First I'm a circus tent and then I'm a wigwam. Then I'm a circus tent, then I'm a wigwam. What's wrong with me?" The psychologist after consulting his diagnostic tests and manual stated, "It's obvious. You're two tents." (Too tense)

ARTISTIC

There is a difference between artistic and autistic.

ATHEIST

What is this I heard about you wanting to become an atheist, but gave up the idea because they do not have any holidays and holydays?

BLAME (Responsibility)

Mr. Junk: At the age of 2 I had ambivalent feelings towards my mother, so naturally it follows I poisoned all my lovers. But now I'm happy, for I have been taught that everything I do wrong is someone else's fault.

BLOOD

I hate the sight of blood, particularly my own.

BRAIN CONCUSSION:

Teacher: Anybody else have any problems they wish to bring up?

Football Player: Yea, you know I am a football player at the college, and last Saturday I had a bad week. For instance, in the last quarter the score was 7 to 7 and we were forced to punt. I was blocking for the punter, and just as the ball was to be kicked I stumbled backwards and the punted ball bounced square off the seat of my pants. The coach naturally pulled me out of the game on the next play. As I came over to the bench the coach came up to me and asked how I felt. I told the coach I was all right. The coach seemed real concerned and wanted to be sure I was all right, again I assured the coach I was okay. Then the coach said, "Yea, when you got hit by that punted ball I thought you had received a brain concussion for sure."

CARS

I couldn't repair your brakes, so I made your horn louder.

CATS

Radioactive cats have 18 half-lives.

CAT SCAN

After a brief examination, the vet pronounced the dog dead.

"Are you sure?" the distraught lady asked. "He was a great family pet. Isn't there anything else you can do?"

The vet paused for a moment and said, "There is one more thing we can do." He left the room for a moment and returned carrying a large cage with a cat in it. The vet opened the cage door and the cat walked over to the dog cautiously. The cat sniffed the dog quickly. The cat then proceeded to sniff the dog from head to toe and walked back into the cage.

"Well, that confirms it." the vet announced.
"Your dog is definitely dead."

Satisfied that the vet had done everything he possible could, the lady sighed, "How much do I owe you?"

"That will be $330." the vet replied.

"I don't believe it!!!", screamed the lady.
"What did you possibly do that cost $330?"

"Well," the vet replied, "It's $30 for the office visit and $300 for the cat scan."

CAUSAL/CASUAL DIFFERENCE

This is a very casual causal relationship.

CHANCE:

There are twenty-four hours in a day and twenty-four beers in a case, is that just chance or is there more significance?

CHANGE

- Everything changes, but change itself.
- Q: How many psychologists does it take to change a light bulb?
- A: One, but the light bulb has got to want to change.

CHANGE MIND

Do you want to change your mind? You don't like the one you have?

CHEAT:

If it [the price/bargain/grade, for example] were fair-er, I would be cheating myself.

CHEATING:

I wonder about a sign that says, "Why go elsewhere to be cheated, when you can come here, and we do it best?"

CHILDREN:

-I wonder about a sign that says, in a maternity ward, "No children allowed."

-I wonder about a sign that says, Ladies are requested not to have children in the bar.

- "Is your mother home?" the salesman asked a small boy sitting on the steps in front of a house. "Yeah, she's home," the boy said, scooting over to let him past. The salesman rang the doorbell, and got no response, knocked once, then again. Still no one came to the door. Turning to the boy, the fellow said, "I thought you said your mother was home." The kid replied, "She is, but this isn't where I live."

- A child came to the door with a bottle of beer, a cigarette, and a Playboy under his arm. The salesman asks if mom was home. "What do you think?"

- One nice day when guests were present for dinner, a mother asked her four-year-old son to say the blessing. "But, Mother, I don't know what to say," he protested. "Just say what you've heard me say," she told him. Obediently, he bowed his head and said, "Oh, Lord, why did I invite these people here on a nice day like this?"

- Dr. Fraud: Tell me, Mr. Jones, how are the children?

Mr. Jones: Okay.

Dr. Fraud: Don't they brighten up the home?

Mr. Jones: Yea, they never turn out the lights.

CHOICE

It is my fault, because I picked you.

COFFEE (SIGNS YOU DRINK TOO MUCH COFFEE)

1. Nobody can turn you off in anyway.
2. You pass everybody on the road, and you are not in a car.
3. You have had 4 heart attacks per hour for the last month.
4. When coffee is stated as your drug of choice.
5. Your sweat has turned to coffee.
6. Yesterday, at the golf course, you thought they said cofTEE TIME 5 minutes, so you replied, "In 5 minutes or whenever, I have my coffee black."

COMPETITION

A bunch of chickens were in a yard when a football flew over the fence and landed in their midst. A rooster waddles over, studied it then said: "I'm not complaining girls, but look at the work they're turning out next door."

COMPLIMENT

Boy, the economy is really getting bad. The other day I paid someone a compliment, and it bounced.

COMPULSION

- Student: Yes, it seems that I have an awful compulsion to eat worms.

Teacher: There's nothing to this, just some direct confrontation therapy. There is less to this problem than meets the eye. I just happen to have a plate full of worms.

Student: No, no. I only want them cooked well done.

(Teacher then cooks them up and offers them to the student.)

Student: No, no. I only want one. (Teacher throws away all but one.)

Student: I want you to eat the first half.

Teacher: (eats the first half)

Student cries - teacher: What's the trouble?

Student: You ate my half.

- Same joke different form – What is worse than eating a worm? Eating a half of a worm

COMPUTERIZED PSYCHOLOGICAL DIAGNOSTIC HOTLINE:

If you are obsessive-compulsive, press (1) continuously and repeatedly.

If you are co-dependent, press (2) for all of the lazy, but capable people around you.

If you have multiple personalities, please press (3), (4), and (5) for each personality

You are paranoid; we know who you are and what you want. Just stay on the line so we can trace the call.

If you are schizophrenic, listen carefully and a voice from nowhere will tell you which number to press.

If you are manic-depressive, it doesn't matter which number you press; no one will ever answer any of your calls.

CONCEIT:

Dr. Fraud: Johnson, you have appeared to be very conceited lately.

Johnson: I don't think so; although I have every right to be. I may not be right, but I am never wrong. I used to be conceited, but I went to a psychologist and got cured. Now, I am just a darn nice person. And anyway doctor, how dare you say such a thing, I just can't stand frank people. In my eye, I do not see I have an ego problem.

Dr. Fraud: Don't worry about it, Johnson, a lot of us have eye (I) trouble. You see, Johnson, there are oral characters etc., but you are an eye character.

CONFUSION- LACK OF DIRECTION

(Patient enters, sees Miss Sack sitting in waiting room and asks): Are you coming or going?

Miss Sack: If I knew I wouldn't be here.

DEATH

-What happens if you get scared half to death twice?

- Death is hereditary.

- Health is merely the slowest possible rate at which one can die.

- Death is life's way of telling you you've been fired.

- Death is nature's way of saying slow down

- A patient went in for a physical, and the doctor said, "I am sorry to have to tell you this, but you don't have long to live." The patient became upset, and said, "Well how much longer do I have to live." The doctor replied, "10." "Ten what? Said the patient. "Ten years? Ten months? What do you mean, ten?" The doctor said, "nine.... eight.... seven..."

- Tombstone had on it, "Here lies the body of John lost at sea and never found."

DE JA VU

Why do I have the feeling that I've heard that term before?

DESCARTES, RENEE

-From the history of psychology class you remember that Renee Descartes guy, who said. "I think, therefore I am". Well, he was out drinking in a bar and it was time for last call. The waitress asked him if he wanted one more for the road and Renee replied, "I think not," and then vanished forever.

-Hunger is NOT a feeling or a thought but rather a sensation." I only have one thing to say to that. "I feel, therefore, I Spam." (Spam is maps spelled backwards)

-“I exist, therefore I am.”

- Descartes (of I think hence I am fame) went out for dinner one evening. The waiter asked him if he would care for some wine. "I think not," replied Descartes, and he dematerialized.

- Descartes once said, "I think hence I am." Some of the following are serious responses. Some are humor generated from his famous quote.

- Some might say these are all examples of putting de cart before the horse.

1. "I think, hence I am."
2. "I think, hence I think I am." (maybe!)
3. "I think, I think."
4. "I am hence I think."
5. "I am, I am." (and my memory is okay)
6. "I think, hence I think, I think."
7. "I think, hence my head hurts."
8. "I say 'I think hence I am, therefore I say, 'I think hence I am."
9. "I say 'I think hence I am', how I have to account for thinking, I have got nowhere." (Psychology needs to get out of this kind of rut.)
10. "I think, hence matter thinks." (Hobbes)
11. "Matter exists, what I think is matter existing."
12. "What humans call thinking is a part of what all physical things do. A futuristic prediction is someday what keeps wood or metal together will be covered in the same chapter as thinking. Different application of same principle."

13. "I say I think, hence I say I think."

14. Vocal vibrations (sounding like "I think") have been paired with certain internal physical stimuli. When these internal physical stimuli happen, I utter, "I think", just like I learn to say, "I hurt" or "sharp pain" to an internal stimuli.

15. What's mind, no matter, what is matter, no mind?

16. "I say 'think hence I am!'" the functional relationships are many: a few possible B-f (x) are:

A. Philosopher x always states I am genius when I say it.

B. Students ask how I got smart when I say it.

C. And other reinforcers.

17. "To be is to be perceived" (Hergenhahn, p.92) (Like Berkley)

18. To be perceived is to be. (We can only study our own observations.)

19. Life and thinking like the song says, "is but a dream."

20. "I dream hence I am."

21. The whole game is sexual adjustment of Freudian infantile libido.

22. The whole thinking thing is reflecting my insanity problem on the rest of the world. (but I do have insight into my problem!)

23. Thinking is an excuse for doing irrational things.

24. To think is to have "self"

A. Know thy self (Socrates)

B. Know thy environment (Goldiamond)

C. Know the relation between (B) environment & (A) organism/self (Goldiamond)

25. To Do Is To Be (Socrates)

26. To Be Is To Do (Plato)

27. Do Be Do Be Do (Sinatra)

28. French Materialist Pierre Gassendi (1592-1655), "I move therefore I am." (Herganhahn 1992) p.143

29. LaMettrie, 1709-1751 among first modern philosophers to suggest, "You are what you eat." Could it be "I eat, hence I think?"

- You remember that Renee Descartes guy, who said, "I think therefore I am." Well he was out drinking in a bar. It was time for last call, and the waitress asked him if he wanted one more for the road. Renee replied, "I think NOT and then vanished forever – or may be until be thought again and became.

DIAGNOSIS ADHD– ATTENTION DEFICIT HYPERACTIVITY DISORDER & MR

Everybody in the world is mentally retarded and/or ADHD, and if you do understand this, you have a low IQ. or you are not paying attention.

DIAGNOSTIC LABELS

Lament of a COGNITIVE PSYCHOLOGIS'S spouse.

I never get angry - I get hostile;
I never get sad - I get depressed;
If I should do housework or knit,
And enjoy it even a bit,
Am I domestic? No, I'm merely obsessed!!!!

I never am sorry - I feel guilty;
And should I by sure chance vacuum the hall,
Wash the floor and such,
And not mind it too much,
Am I tidy? No, compulsive that's all!!!!

If I should hesitate at a choice point - I have Freudian conflict,
With ambivalent feelings yet,
And I never get worried,
Or nervous or hurried,
Anxiety, that is what I get!!!!!!

If I am happy - The lid is on my id,
And if I should go to the movie, go home or at the Ritz,
And have a good time,
By making pun or rhyme;
I'm some kind of a nut, most likely a Schiz!!!!!!

If I tell you you're right - I'm submissive,

Repressing, aggressiveness, too
And when I disagree,
I am defensive, you see,
And projecting my symptoms on you!!!!!!

I love you. - That's just transference,
With Oedipus rearing his head;
And when my breathing is asthmatic, It is, of course, psychosomatic,
Caused by a fear of exclaiming, "Drop dead!!!!!!!!!!"

I'm not lonely; I'm simply dependent;
My dog has no fleas, just a tic,
So if I seem a cad,
Never mind, just be glad,
That I'm not a stinker, I'm sick!!!!!!!!!!

DIPLOMACY

The art of saying "nice doggie!" - until you can find a rock.

DISBELIEFS

Student: I've developed this strange delusion that I am dead. And I can't get it out of my head.

Teacher: This is a simple cure. Do dead people bleed?

Student: No

Teacher: (cutting Nancy) Look blood! Now what do you have to say?

Student: Dead people do bleed.

DOUBLESPEAK

A reader reports that when the patient died, the attending doctor recorded the following on the patient's chart: "Patient failed to fulfill his wellness potential."

FEAR OF HEIGHT:

I was walking around my building on the narrowest part of window ledge on the 15th floor. Some people are afraid of heights. Me? No! I am afraid of widths.

FEELING

-Therapist looking in a mirror, I know how you feel.

-Question: "How do you feel?" "How should I feel?"

-Farmer Joe decided his injuries from the accident were serious enough to take the trucking company (responsible for the accident) to court.

In court, the trucking company's fancy lawyer was questioning farmer Joe. "Didn't you say, at the scene of the accident, 'I'm fine,'" said the lawyer. Farmer Joe responded, "Well I'll tell you what happened. I had just loaded my favorite mule Bessie into the....."

"I didn't ask for any details," the lawyer interrupted, "just answer the question." "Did you not say, at the scene of the accident, you were fine?"

Farmer Joe said, "Well I had just got Bessie into the trailer and I was driving down the road..."

The lawyer interrupted again and said, "Judge, I am trying to establish the fact that, at the scene of the accident, this man told the Highway Patrolman that he was just fine. Now several weeks after the accident he is trying to sue my client." I believe he is a fraud. Please tell him to simply answer the question."

By this time the Judge was fairly interested in Farmer Joe's answer and said to the lawyer, "I'd like to hear what he has to say about his favorite mule Bessie."

Joe thanked the Judge and proceeded, "Well as I was saying, I had just loaded Bessie, my favorite mule, into the trailer and was driving her down the highway when this huge semi-truck and trailer ran the stop sign and smacked my truck right in the side. I was thrown into one ditch and Bessie was thrown into the other. I was hurting real bad and didn't want to move. However, I could hear ole Bessie moaning and groaning. I knew she was in terrible shape just by her groans. Shortly after the accident a Highway Patrolman came on the scene. He could hear Bessie moaning and groaning so he went over to her. After he looked at her he took out his gun and shot her between the eyes. Then the Patrolman came across the road with his gun in his hand and looked at me."

He said, "Your mule was in such bad shape I had to shoot her. -how are you feeling?"

FREE TIME

Weekends, in my opinion, are meant for sleeping late. My husband doesn't agree. Not only does he get up an hour earlier than usual, he hounds me until I struggle out of bed as well. I've only protested once. "Go back to sleep," I groaned. "It's Saturday." He looked at me, obviously shocked, and exclaimed: "And lose part of my time off?"

FREUD LINGO:

GENDER EQUITY:

A forest ranger, known for strength, bought a saw that supposedly could cut down 100 trees a day. On the first day he cut down 90 trees. The next day he cut down 90 trees. The third day he worked late, but cut down only 80 trees. He went back to the store with a complaint. He told the store manager of the effort. The manager couldn't understand what was wrong, so he grabbed the starter rope and pulled, and the motor started with a roar. The forest ranger jumped back in alarm and yelled, "Hey! What's that big noise?"

GENETICS

- Mr. Jones: Miss Brown, I believe you and I should have a child. With your looks and my brains the child would be marvelous.

Miss Brown: Yea, but what happens if he has your looks and my brains?

-(Enters Dr. Fraud with paper): I see where a Geneticist has just made a marvelous discovery about mental deficiency. After a long study of the family background of Medical Doctors it was found that most MD's come from a family with a medical background, thus the causative factor in M.D. as a profession is very similar to M.D. (the so called disease) in that it lies in the genes.

When it comes to giving, some people stop at nothing.

GOLDEN RULE

-Objective of this joke, proving the Golden Rule is False. Do NOT do unto others as you would have them do unto you, they might have different taste, i.e., different learning histories.

GREETINGS WITH PSYCHOLOGICAL IMPLICATIONS

Greeting #1

Person #1: How are you?

Person #2: I would like to tell you, but if I told you, I have to kill you cause you would know the secret.

Greeting #2

To a Psychologist. You are looking fine, how am I?

Greeting #3

Person #1: Hello, how are you?

Person #2: I wonder what he meant by that.

Greeting #4

Person #1: Have a good day.

Person #2: No thank you, I had other plans.

Greeting #5

In a prison, the inmates, who were in for life, memorized all of the greetings by numbers. The psychologist and the warden were watching when inmates 1 & 2 met. One said "4" The other said "14" and they smiled. When inmates 3,4, and 5 joined the group they all gave a different # and all smiled and warmly responded with a friendly # back. Inmate #6 came in and said "3". All of them looked at the inmate strangely and said nothing. The psychologist was concerned about what had happened and asked the warden about it. The warden stated: "you know, some people just don't know how to meet and greet people"

HEAD EXAMINED:

Just as I thought; all people who go to a psychologist should have their head examined.

HEARING AID:

John: I got this great new hearing aid the other day.

Mary: Are you wearing it now?

John: Yup. Cost me four thousand dollars, though. But it's top of the line.

Mary: What kind is it?

John: Twelve-thirty.

HEALTH:

Health is merely the slowest possible rate at which one can die.

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF:

- History does not repeat itself, historians repeat each other.

- I said history repeats itself.

HYPNOSIS SEMI TRANCE/TRUCK

I went into a semi-hypnosis trance, no I did not, I went into a trance and walked into a semi truck.

ID

SFraud: What could I do for you?

Miss Karen: My lid fell off my id.

SFraud: Someone once told me the id is only studied by the odd.

ILLITERATE

I am bi-illiterate; I can't speak or write in English.

ILLUSION: DISILLUSION (NO PUN INTENDED)

Dis-illusion an ill-usion that got well, some times referred to as a, "usion," or at least the illness became diluted, i.e., a delusion

IMAGINATION

The universe is a figment of its own imagination.

IMPOSSIBLE

I wonder about a sign that says on an electrical restroom hand dryer, "Do not activate with wet hands."

INSTANT HUMAN: I am instant human- just add coffee.

INNER SELF:

An advertisement states: Apply here for the world famous: International Beauty Contest. The grand prize is a one million dollars life long health care and beauty treatment and beauty care. You also receive life long beauty products and also receive a life long supply of food for health living. You will, in addition, will receive a life long movie contract!

Contestants Mr. & Mrs. A: How do you win this beauty contest? Are there some standards?

Contest Judge: "The prize is based on your inner beauty. What is inside you as a person is what is so very important to us, and eventually it is what counts, and it wins out. What is inside will eventually show. People are different on the outside, but the real quality of the person shows on the inside. For some people on the outside there is a cold crust, but deep inside there is a warm human being."

Contestant A: I would die for that international beauty contest title, and the million-dollar prize I could certainly use all my life.

Contest Judge: Good

An excerpt from the film, "Inside the Ms. & Mr. Autopsy Contest Winners for 1999." Tales From the Crypt

- A person striving to be a movie star was told that their very tiny nose was not adequate to be in movies. To be a film star one needs an adequate nose. This gave our aspiring movie star great feelings of inner inadequacy. Thus she went to a psychologist with these feelings of inadequacy.

The psychologist told her it was not what was outside her nose that was important, but that what was important was what was inside her nose.

INTELLIGENCE TESTS

Intelligence tests are STRONGLY biased in favor of the people we have termed literate.

INTERNS

Several years ago we had an intern who was not too swift. One day he was typing and turned to a secretary and said, "I'm almost out of typing paper. What do I do?" "Just use copy machine paper," she told him. With that, the intern took his one last remaining blank piece of paper, put it on the photocopier and proceeded to make five blank copies. Also when someone called and asked to speak to Bob, he said, "Bob just started his vacation today. Would you like to hold?"

JOKES BY THE NUMBERS:

Miss Johnson: 3 (all patients laugh)

Miss Brown: 9 (all patients laugh)

Mr. Black: 17 (all patients laugh)

(Dr. Fraud to Mr. Black): What is this all about?

Mr. Black: Well, we have decided rather than tell the jokes all the time, we could tell more of them faster if we memorized them by numbers.

Mr. Jones: 14 (no laughter)

Dr. Fraud: What just happened?

Mr. Black: You know Doc., some can tell jokes, and some can't.

JURY

Twelve people who determine which client has the better lawyer.

KNOCK-KNOCK (applied humor for cows)

A. Knock, Knock.

B. Who is there?

A. One impatient cow.

A. Mow.

B. One impatient cow, who?

KNOW IT ALL:

I know it all... I just can't remember it all at once.

LAB WORK

A faculty prided himself in the "tight ship" he ran and in the tough way he made his lab personnel work. One day he came into the lab and saw a person leaning against a pile of boxes. "Boy," he said sharply, "how much salary do you get?" "Thirty-five dollars a day," the person answered. The faculty took thirty-five dollars out of his wallet and handed it to him, "Take that and get out of here." When he had gone, the faculty turned to another lab person. "How long has that kid been working here?" he asked. "He doesn't work here" the other lab person answered "He just came by to leave those boxes."

LABOR SAVING DEVICES

The world of favorable consequences works in a strange way. Look at what happens to modern technology. One is working for laborsaving devices that allow one time to work to earn money to pay for these labor saving devices.

Weinberg's Second Law:

If builders built buildings the way programmers wrote programs, then the first woodpecker that came along would have destroyed civilization.

LAUGHTER AMESIA

Forgot what you laugh at.

LAUGHTER TEMPERATURE

- Various temperature and various people responses to these temperatures:

60 degrees: Californians put on sweaters.

50: Miami residents turn on the heat.

40: You can see your breath. Californians shiver uncontrollably.

35: Minnesotans go swimming. English cars won't start

32: Water freezes.

30: You plan your vacation to Australia, & Minnesotans put on T-shirts.

25: Boston water freezes. Californians weep. Santa Claus abandons North Pole

30: Minnesotans eat ice cream. Canadians go swimming.

20: You can hear your breath. Miami residents plan vacations farther south.

15: You plan a vacation in the South. Your cat insists on sleeping in bed with you.

5: You plan your vacation in Houston. American cars don't start.

-15: You can cut your breath. You need jumper cables to get the driver going.

-25: Too cold to think. You need jumper cables to get the driver going.

-30: You plan a two-week hot bath. Your CAR insists on sleeping in your bed with you

-40: Californians disappear. Minnesotans button top button.

-50 Canadians put on sweaters. Your car helps you plan your trip south.

-60: Congressional hot air freezes. Alaskans close the bathroom window.

-80: Hell freezes over. Polar bears move south.

-90: Green Bay Packers fans put on T-shirts. Too cold to snow.

-100: You HEAR your breath. People from Miami cease to exist

-460 / -273 (Absolute Zero) All atomic motion ceases. Minnesotans start saying how it's a tad nippy outside. Lawyers start putting their hands in their own pockets.

LAW AND PSYCHOLOGY

You have the right to remain silent. Anything you say will be misquoted, and then used against you.

LAWYER / PSYCHOLOGIST (ANY PROFESSION)

Difference between (any discipline) & catfish: one eats garbage and is a low life, and one is a fish.

LEAVING A LECTURE

I didn't get up and leave when you came.

LICENSE

Mediocrity thrives on standardization and license.

LIE

I always tell the truth, when I lie.

LIES (VALUE OF):

- Who would vote for a U.S. presidential candidate who said, "My fellow Americans. We are in deep trouble. It is hard to believe what a mess we're in right now. And I don't have the slightest concept of what to do about it. Thank you and good night."

-Who would buy stocks if a broker said: "To tell you the truth, I don't have the slightest idea if the stock market is going to go up or down and if that company will make you millions or send you into bankruptcy. How many millions of shares do you want?"

- Would the legal system survive if lawyers told juries: "My client has entered a plea of not guilty, and I played along with that, although I know he committed the crime. I will do my best during this trial to bewilder you 12 gullible turkeys into enough crazy doubts to earn my fee and to let the guilty jerk off."

- Company X CEOs run on these merits: "I seek to be president of this company because I have an enormous ego. I love power, wheeling and dealing, crave admiration, recognition, approval, am infinitely more intelligent than the rest of you, have an insatiable need to impose my will on others; and I'm bored stiff with my present station in life. Incidentally, I am not sure if I can do some good if elected, but only time will tell."

LIE ONLY A LITTLE:

Honestly, believe me, I only lie and cheat a little!

LIFE

- "Life is just too serious to be taken entirely serious!"

-Life is like a dog sled team. If you are not the lead dog, the scenery never changes.

-I hope life isn't just simply one big joke, because I don't get it.

LISTEN

-Intern: Don't you get tired of listening to this kind of stuff?
Dr. Fraud: Who listens!

-My spouse say I never listen, at least I think that's what my spouse says.

LOCATION

I live 10 miles west of the university by telephone.

LONELY

-Every night I look under my bed with ambivalence.
- Dr. Fraud: Tell me, Miss Brown, why did you start coming to see a psychologist?
Miss Brown: Well, all my friends started to go to psychologists and I began to have that left out feeling.

LONG LECTURE

This lecture is a long one, simply because I have not had time to make a short one.

LOSING SOMETHING

I lost that set of lecture notes the last place I could think of putting them.

LOSS:

(This is a take-off on Edward G. Boring's attempt to make a funny with his statement of psychology loosing its heart and soul and with Watson on the verge of loosing his mind. More of the history of psychology could be put into this kind of useful satire:

First of all Psychology lost its:

--MAGIC (With Thales (624-546 BC) with his primary element (physics) i.e. water (see Hergenhahn {1} P. 26-----then it loss its

--HEART Galen (130-200AD) "...localized the mind in the brain; Aristotle has it in the heart." (Boring p.15)-----
-then it lost its

--SPIRIT (Democritus "first naturalist" and his atoms spirits took at least 1 step backwards) 460-370BC) (see Hergenhahn{1} P.31-----then it lost its

--HUMOR (Hippocrates (460-375BC) and who found & developed 4 of them) (see Hergenhahn{1} P.31)-----
then it lost its

--PLACE IN THE CENTER OF THE UNIVERSE (with Copernicus (1473-1543), Galileo (1564-1642) and Newton 1642-1727) the human and his/her psychology did not have the universe spinning around them

--SOUL with Descartes (1596-1650) dualism, the soul had to share the glory with the body-----then it lost its

--TRANSMISSION PROBLEM # 1 (Charlie Bell (1774-1842) and his sensory motor nerve-----then it lost its

--RACE with Darwin, the notion of race took on a new "color"

--MIND (Watson and Behaviorism)

LOU GERICH

Imagine that! Lou Gerich getting Lou Gerich Disease.

MMPI

(Mertens' Malfunctioning and Perverted Inventory)

LOSS: Any small object when dropped will hide under a larger object.

MAGAZINE TRAINING

Having the patient pick up all the magazines.

MANNERS

Two cars met head-on on a narrow, one-way bridge. Screaming to a halt, one irate driver stuck his head out the window and shouted, "I don't back up for idiots!" Calmly putting his car in reverse, the other motorist replied, "I do."

MARRIAGE:

- I love to get married, to blind dates.

- I wonder about a sign that says, It is strictly forbidden on our camp grounds that people of different sex, for instance, men and women, live together in a single tent unless they are married with each other for that purpose.

-A man and his wife started out in the car after a quarrel. One spouse sat in the back seat and continued to rant and rave. In the excitement the spouse pounded on the car door and it flew open. Several blocks later one of their neighbors flagged the driver down. "Your partner fell out of the car back there," he said. The spouse looked over at the back seat. "Thank goodness! I thought I had lost my hearing."

-Are you married or happy?

MARRIAGE SUCCESSFUL

-A marriage couple at their golden wedding were explaining the success of marriage. "The reason we stayed together all these years is we go dancing a lot. I go Monday, Wednesday and Friday. My spouse goes the other days."

-To increase the chance of a long successful marriage try to avoid this sequence: silver wedding, golden wedding, and rust.

MATH

When 1 plus 1 is not always 2, e.g., 1 drop of water plus 1 drop of water equals 1 big drop of water

MATURITY

-Maturity is the ability to live in someone else's world.

-What I do is mature, what everybody else does in not being mature.

MEANING

My friend is recording all the noises their child makes, so later they can ask him what he meant.

MEDIA

Then there's the media triangle about the Bermuda Triangle, where objective reporting mysteriously vanishes.

MEDICAL PRACTICE: Does it bother you that MD's and psychologists call what they do practice?

MEDICAL TERMINOLOGY

Artery - The Study of paintings

Bacteria - Back door to the cafeteria

Barium - What you do when CPR fails

Benign - What you be after you be eight

MENTAL HEALTH:

I wonder about a sign that says, "Mental Health and Teaching Excellence Prevention Center"

MENTAL ILLNESS

-(Mr. Green then places the pail down on the floor and is apparently fishing in the pail with the fishing rod he brought with him).

Dr. Fraud: (to audience): I guess I will have to play along with this game, (to Mr. Green): Are you catching anything?

Mr. Green: In here? Are you crazy?

-Dr. Fraud: You are quite a wit.

Mr. Green: Well, at least a half of one.

-Mr. Green: Doctor, unless you stop that singing I'll go crazy.

Dr. Fraud: It is too late, you have gone, and I quit singing a half-hour ago.

-Dr. Fraud: Tell me what are your feelings about the situation in the world today.

Mr. Green: Which world?

MILLION (SECOND MILLION)

I am working on my second million; I gave up on my first million.

MINISTER

A youth minister was at the touring circus in town, and asking about the performers religious faith. "I have faith in you to do your dangerous work. You must have faith in God." The tightrope walker asked, from high up in the tent, "Do you have faith in me to walk this rope?" "Yes." said the youth minister. "Do you think I can push this wheelbarrow as I walk across the tent on this high rope?" "Yes, even that. I believe in you." "Then climb up here and ride across in the wheelbarrow!"

NUMBER 1 LOVER

During a flight a gentleman was quietly reading his paper when a stewardess asked if he would care for a cocktail. Not looking up he replied, "I'm a lover, not a drinker." The stewardess' reaction was a surprised, "Oh...?" "In fact," he continued, putting his paper down and giving her his full attention, "I'm probably the third greatest lover in history." "Is that right?" asked the stewardess. "And who would you say No. 1 and No. 2 were?" "Benjamin Franklin and Abraham Lincoln," declared the man. "But they weren't great lovers," protested the stewardess. "Oh my gosh," he said, "then I must be No. 1!"

MONASTERY

There is a monastery in Greece perched high on a cliff, several hundred feet in the air. The only way to reach the monastery is to be suspended in a basket that is pulled to the top by several monks who pulled and tugged with all their strength. Obviously the ride up the steep cliff in that basket is terrifying. One tourist got exceedingly nervous about halfway up as he noticed that the rope, by which he was suspended, was old and frayed. With a trembling voice he asked the monk who was riding with him in the basket how often they changed the rope. The monk thought for a moment and answered serenely: "Whenever it breaks."

MURDER;

If someone with multiple personalities threatens to kill himself, is it considered a hostage situation?

NAMED AFTER

I was named after George Washington; George was named in the 1700's, me in 1936.

NUMBER OF PEOPLE

The population of the USA is 237 million. 104 million are retired. That leaves 133 million to do the work.

There are 85 million in school, which leave 48 million to do the work.

Of this there are 29 million employed by the federal government. This leaves 19 million to do the work.

Four million are in the Armed Forces, which leaves 15 million to do the work.

Take from that total the 14,800,000 people who work for State and City government and that leaves 200,000 to do the work.

There are 188,000 in hospitals, so that leaves 12,000 to do the work.

Now, there are 11,998 people in Prisons. That leaves just two people to do the work.

You and me.

And you're sitting there reading this.

OEDIPUS COMPLEX

OPEN:

I wonder about a sign that says, "Open 75 hours a day, seven days a week, and weekends."

OPEN MINDED

- There is a difference between an open mind and a hole in the head.
- Don't be so opened minded that y our brains fall out.
- A great many open minds need to be closed for repairs.

OPINION:

- Opinions usually represent what I think I meant sometimes.

PAIN AT DENTIST

Mr. and Mrs. Russo entered the dentist's office. Mrs. Russo said, "I want a tooth pulled. I don't want gas or Novocain because I'm in a terrible hurry. Just pull the tooth as quickly as possible." You're a brave woman said the dentist. Now, show me which tooth it is. Mrs. Russo turned to her husband. Open your mouth and show the dentist which tooth it is, dear.

PSYCHOTHERAPY FOR $6

A therapy tape is now at your local drug store, called "Walk-a-Shrink" the tape provides low cost therapy through headphones of your choice. It can be used while jogging, commuting, or on the privacy of a therapy couch at home. One feature is it save time and money. The voice returns after about a minute to say, "Just tell me how you feel." Every minute or so during the 45-minute tape the therapist states such helpful remarks as "uh, huh," "yes, go on," "What are you thinking?" "Why do you think that is?" "Tell me more." etc.

REALITY:

- Reality is the only obstacle to happiness.
- My reality checks always bounce.

ROGERS

- I see also where they have come up with a new school of psychotherapy similar to the Rogerian School. They have taught a dog to grunt, "Hmm," and nod his head as a client tells his problem, ya they are calling it the Roverian School of Psychotherapy.

SCARS OF LIFE:

Remember you can turn the bad scars (the hurts of life) into the stars in your life (the objectives, the things you will aim for in your life). Let your scars become your stars.

SECRET

"Dad, give me a dollar." "Not today, Son, not today." "Dad, if you give me a dollar, I'll tell you what the milkman said to Mama this morning." "Here, son, quick what did he say?" "He said, Lady, how much milk do you want this morning?"

SECRETARY

I am here to talk to this class about the career field of secretary. As a career secretary I file, file and file - my nails.

SELF

Some believe being wanted for murder is better than not being wanted at all.

It does not matter what they say about you as long as the press spells your name correctly.

It doesn't matter if they spell your name right, as long as they talk about you.

It does not matter how rotten the things are that they say or write about you, as long as they spell your name or pronounce your name so poorly no one knows whom they are referring to.

I would never join a group that would have me as a member.

Anyone shorter than I am is a dwarf,
Anyone taller than I am is a mutant.

Anyone less intelligent than I am is a moron,
Anyone smarter than I am is an ivory tower egghead.

Anyone younger than I am is a punk,
Anyone older than I am is just plain old.

Anyone who drinks more than I do is an alcoholic,
Anyone who drinks less than I do is a tea totter who is no fun.

-Anyone who drives slower than I do is a danger on the road,
-Anyone who drives faster should have their driver's license revoked.

SELF IMPROVEMENT

-Last night I did something I have never done before, I bought a self-improvement tape. Today I went back and bought 300 more tapes.

-I went to the bookstore and asked, "Where's the self-help section?" I was told that if they told me that, it would defeat the purpose.

(Secretary returns with Mr. Prank): Dr. Fraud this is Mr. Prank.

Dr. Fraud: Hello

Mr. Prank: Hmm!! I wonder what he meant by that.

RUDE:

I wonder about a sign that says, "Customers who find our waitresses rude ought to see the manager."

RUT IN LIFE:

The only difference between a rut and a grave is the depth.

SAVE MONEY

-Comments by supervisor

"The sincerity of the proposal was a real gem."

"Every sincere word was a golden nugget!"

Employee: "I'd rather be insincere and save money!"

-"The sincerest form of flattery is cash."

- A penny saved is just something else for the cat to knock off the dresser.

-My reality checks always bounce.

SELF HELP:

How can there be self-help groups?

SELF-MANAGEMENT

A worker complains every day about the kind of sandwich he has in his lunch bucket, and always tells others at lunch that he wished he had different kind. One day his co-workers finally get tired of the complaining and suggest,

"Why don't you tell your wife to make you a different kind?" To this the worker replies, "I make my own sandwich."

SMILE

On a bus one evening a woman was bothering the driver every few minutes, reminding him where she wanted to get off. "How will I know when we get to my street?" she asked. He couldn't resist, "By the big smile on my face, lady."

SPOUSE

-“My spouse and I have a great interpersonal relationship. My spouse was a communication major in college and I majored in theater arts. My spouse communicates really well and I just act like I am listening.

-Wife: (ending an argument with husband) “.....and beside that you are a lousy lover. I always faked my orgasms.
Husband: So do I.

SUCCESS AND MARRIAGE:

Many a man owes his success to his first wife, and his second wife to her success.

Marriage is the triumph of imagination over the real world.
A second marriage is the triumph of hope over the real world.

A person is incomplete until married. After that, they are finished.

I'm the best housekeeper. Every time I get a divorce, I keep the house.

When a person steals your spouse, there is no better revenge than to let the thief keep your spouse.

He/she's a lovely person, and deserves a good spouse, so marry the person before they find one.

Marriage is when a man and woman become as one; the trouble begins when they try to decide which one.

Before marriage, a person YEARNs for the one they love, and after marriage, the 'Y' becomes silent.

Do not marry a person that you know that you can live with; but marry someone that you cannot live without.

If you want your spouse to listen and pay strict attention to every word you say, talk in your sleep.

TALKING:

I'm talking and I can't shut up!

TAX LOTTERY:

The lottery is a tax on people who are bad at math.

THANK YOU FOR THE CHRISTMAS PRESENT

Belated thank you note from a nine-year old sent in March, “I love the book you sent me at Christmas. I have been reading it day and night and am now on page three.”

THESAURUS: Is there another word for synonym, or for thesaurus?

THINKING

My psychologist is out of town, and I don't know what to think.

THERAPY - EFFECTIVENESS;

The traditional psychologist telephones a patient about a delinquent bill, "I'm sorry to tell you, your check just bounced back."
The patient replied, "So did my Schizophrenia."

THERAPY - LOUSY:

Mr. Rovers: The true value of any new theory appears to be related to the amount of resistance with which it is met. As Christ found in the physical violence, and Skinner with intellectual argument. Thus let me pay you a compliment, your theory is lousy.

THERAPY - POWER:

Nancy: Doc, Doc.! Will I be able to dance, when I finish my psychotherapy sessions with you?

Fraud: Yes

Nancy: Good, I have always wanted to dance.

THINKING:

Did you ever stop to think and forget to start again?

TIME:

A reader sent a letter to a newspaper expressing her approval of daylight savings time. "I have planted a garden for many years," she wrote, "and I find that it does much better with that extra hour of sunlight every day!"

VERBAL BEHAVIOR - POLITICAL CORRECT

The reasons for NOT being Political Correct (PC) are many. In many cases there appears to be a suppression of freedom of speech when we are pushed into being PC. Particularly toward youth, the PC world appears conservative and suppressive. Look for example at the following parent and child.

-This protective parent was eternally vigilant looking for bad language developing in John, their grade school child. The parents were particularly going to keep the son clean of gutter language, but their child being grammatically correct was also important. At an evening meal John was describing an accident on the school bus that afternoon:

John: By this farm the bus crashed right into this cow's ass.

Gentle Correcting Parent: John, rectum.

John: Wreck him, hell, it about killed him!

John: Gee, balls on a goose, I was hungry tonight.

Gentle Correcting Parent: You could say, I was hungry.

John: Ya, I etten 7 potatoes for supper.

Gentle Correcting Parent: Ate.

John: May it was eight I etten.

TRESPASSING:

I wonder about a sign that says, "No trespassing without permission."

UNCERTAINTY:

If all knowledge is uncertain, is that statement also uncertain?

UNEXPLAINED VS. NOT UNEXPLAINABLE

There is a difference.

UNIQUE;

Always remember you're unique, just like everyone else.

WHILE YOU WAIT:

I wonder about a sign that says, "Ears pierced here while you wait."

WORK:

-I pretend to work, and they pretend to pay me!

-I work at golf for food.
