

Malott Homework Set# 1 Chapter 10 Special Establishing Operations

1. An aversive condition is an establishing operation that affects learning and performance with respect to the aggression reinforcers. (p.177)

~True or False?

2. Stimuli resulting from acts of aggression. (p.179)

- a. punishment
- b. operandum
- c. aggression reinforcer
- d. concept training

3. Frustration is a substance inside us that builds up and must be released. (p.179)

~True or False?

4. Often we're not only unaware of why we aggress, but we're even unaware that we are aggressing. (p.180)

~True or False?

5. Addictive drugs are unlearned reinforcers prior to addiction. (p.182)

~True or False?

6. It's the outcome that calls the shots, therefore we emphasize _____ rather than addictive behaviors. (p.183)

- a. addictive reinforcers
- b. learned reinforcers
- c. aggression reinforcers

7. Addictive reinforcer: A reinforcer for which repeated exposure is an establishing operation. (p.183)

~True or False?

8. Behavior analysts argue that aggressive behavior is UNLEARNED. (p.184)

~True or False?

9. The aggression reinforcer is itself an UNLEARNED reinforcer. (p.184)

~True or False?

ESSAY:

10. If physical stimulation is so reinforcing, why don't we aggress all of the time? (p.179)