

Malott Homework Set #1 Chapter 30 Jobs and Grad School

1. T/F The subfields of behavior analysis include Experimental Analysis of Behavior and Applied Behavior Analysis.
2. T/F Ivar Lovaas was a behavior analyst who worked with children labeled autistic using the predictions, theory, and philosophy of traditional psychology and traditional psychodiagnostics.
3. T/F Even if traditional talk therapy helped, there are few problems, in a few people, reached with an hour long talk session once a week.
4. _____ is (are) usually just another name for traditional approaches that almost always lose.
 - a. reifications
 - b. phases
 - c. training
 - d. baseline
5. T/F Many good behavior analysis programs are simply called school psychology, special education, or even human development and family life.
6. T/F ABA stands for the Activist for Behavioral Applications
7. The _____ is important because deadlines will sneak up on you; this method may help eliminate some procrastination habits.
 - a. GRE
 - b. Timetable
 - c. graduate program directory
 - d. contract

8. What is most important for getting into graduate school?

- a. practical experience
- b. GRE and GPA scores
- c. SAT scores
- d. positive attitude
- e. none of the above

9. T/F There is no way to improve a low grade point average (GPA).

10. Who provides the strongest letters of recommendation when applying to graduate school?

- a. professors
- b. family members
- c. work supervisors
- d. friends
- e. letters of recommendation are not important.