

Malott Homework Set 3 Chapter 4

1-51. The immediate response-contingent presentation of an aversive condition resulting in a decreased frequency of that response, is an example of? Pg. 60

- A. Escape
- B. Punishment contingency
- C. Reinforcement contingency
- D. A and B
- E. All of the above.

2-52. An aversive condition is something we tend to _____. Pg. 60

- A. Like to have a lot of contact with
- B. Minimize contact with
- C. Do to our friends
- D. all of the above
- E. A and E

3-53. A contingency on an inappropriate behavior requiring the person to engage in an effortful response that more than corrects the effects of the inappropriate behavior is an example of? Pg. 70

- A. Escape
- B. Reinforcement
- C. Overcorrection
- D. The sick social cycle
- E. All of the above

4-54 to 6-56. Contingency table. To answer this put the correct letter in the right box. Pg. 64

Stimulus, event, or condition	Present	Remove
Reinforcer	4-54_____
Aversive Condition	5-55_____	6-56_____

- A. Punishment
- B. Reinforcement
- C. Escape

7-57. You lower the zipper on your tight blue jeans after eating too much this is an example of? Pg. 63

- A. Punishment by the presentation of an aversive condition
- B. Punishment by the removal of a reinforcer
- C. Reinforcement by the removal of an aversive condition
- D. Reinforcement by the presentation of a reinforcer
- E. All of the above

8-58. You try to put on your tight jeans after eating too much this is an example of? Pg. 63

- A. Punishment by the presentation of an aversive condition
- B. Punishment by the removal of a reinforcer
- C. Reinforcement by the removal of an aversive condition
- D. Reinforcement by the presentation of a reinforcer

9-59. The perpetrator's aversive behavior punishes the victim's appropriate behavior. And the victim's stopping the appropriate behavior unintentionally reinforces that aversive behavior is an example of? Pg. 72

- A. Overcorrection
- B. The sick social cycle (victim's punishment model)
- C. Informed consent
- D. Social validity
- E. All of the above

10-60. What contingency was used to eliminate a 17-yearold's sneezing that was once every 40-second for the past six months? Pg. 63

- A. Reinforcement
- B. Escape
- C. Punishment
- D. Penalty
- E. All of the above

