Academic Indexes and Electronic Journal Collections

- Academic Search Premier (all topics) from EBSCO
  Varies by indexed title; 1975 - present
  Academic Search Premier contains indexing for nearly 8,050 publications, with full text for more than 4,600. Contains full text coverage in biology, chemistry, engineering, physics, psychology, etc.

- PubMed
  Mid 1960's to present
  Pubmed, produced at the National Library of Medicine (NLM) and provided for free, contains over 15 million citations from biomedical and health science journals. Access additional databases including BioEthicsLine, AIDSline (AIDS information), HistLine (History of Medicine), Toxline (toxicology) and many genetic databases.

- ScienceDirect
  1993 to present for Academic Press journals; 1996 to present for Elsevier journals
  Search over 1,200 scholarly journals published by Elsevier. ScienceDirect is multi-subject, but specializes in science. Note: We do not have full text access to all journals.

- Scopus (Science)
  1966 to present
  Abstract and citation database of scientific, technical, and medical literature (some social sciences literature) from 13,450 peer-reviewed (scholarly) journal titles from 4,000 international publishers. Simultaneously search for websites with Scirus, a search engine for scientific information.
