The Planetarium Is awesome

I'm going to tell you about my trip to the planetarium. The planetarium has a projector that shows the planets and the constellations and the ceiling was a half circle.

I learned that the sun rotates and that the North star never moves. My favorite part was the constellations.